

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October, 2009

ALASKA DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
& WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT*Dynamic Works welcomes the Alaska
Department of Labor and Workforce Development as a New Customer

Susan Brenner, Training Specialist II with DOLWD – Employment & Training Tech Unit, has worked with Dynamic Works to develop a customized online training, the Alaska Workforce Services Professional – Basic, to be included in Alaska’s comprehensive training plan.

Using a blended approach of online and in-house classroom instruction to train over 200 staff, training began September 14th for the first group of students who spent the week in Anchorage for intensive training with Ms Brenner. The students will complete the remainder of their online courses during the following weeks at their home locations.

The Alaska Department of Labor and Workforce Development have 23 Job Centers throughout the state and you can visit their website at www.labor.state.ak.us. Dynamic Works is excited to be a part of Alaska’s comprehensive training program of online and classroom instruction designed to enhance the professionalism of their workforce services staff throughout the state.

Looking for customized training?

Dynamic Works has developed custom online training and certifications for the states of Florida, Virginia, and Maryland and now the state of Alaska. Dynamic Works has also developed custom certifications for regions and individual Workforce Investment Boards. Visit the Custom Solutions page on our website for more information. If you are interested in developing customized training for your state, region or local WIB, contact us at info@dynamicinstitute.com or 321-205-1590.

####

Dynamic Works Institute is the leading national training and certification institute for workforce development professionals with over 16,000 students who have taken more than 230,000 courses and have been awarded more than 10,700 Workforce Development Professional Certifications. For more information about the organization, its training products or other potential training partnership opportunities, visit www.dynamicinstitute.com, email us at: info@dynamicinstitute.com or call (321) 205-1590.